

Oregon Moving & Storage Association

4005 SE Naef Road, Portland, OR 97267 503.513.0005 Fax 503-513-0008 www.ormsa.com

CODE OF ETHICS (Code of Professional Conduct)

We, the members of the Oregon Moving & Storage Association ("OMSA" or "Association"), stand united in our sincere belief that honest, ethical, efficient, and quality services to the public are the ultimate goals of this organization, whereupon we pledge ourselves to uphold and advance the following ideals and principles:

- To maintain standards of professionalism and personal conduct that will reflect in a responsible manner on OMSA and the moving and storage industries.
- To adhere to all laws, rules, regulations, and applicable tariffs governing moving and storage operations, whether in intrastate or interstate commerce; to conduct business in an ethical manner consistent with the laws of the State of Oregon and the United States of America, or any subdivision thereof.
- To consistently offer and provide the most efficient and reliable moving and storage services available, while adhering strictly to a policy of truth, honesty, integrity, and fairness in all business transactions.
- To promote the elimination of fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, and unethical practices within our industry.
- To give fair and honest consideration to all complaints.
- To be conscious and considerate of consumer needs and to continually promote the progress, fraternity, education, and dignity of our industry so that the public will be best served.
- To act with fiscal responsibility and to maintain sound business relationships with suppliers, industry, and trades.
- To refrain from defaming competitors by falsely representing or falsely disparaging the quality of their services.
- To maintain the highest concern for the health, welfare, and safety of our employees, while recognizing their needs as both human beings and individuals.
- To protect free enterprise in our democratic society and to foster the commercial viability of the small business component of our industry.
- To afford all the members and applicants maximum due process in the administration of Association affairs, to promote competitive practices, and to eliminate unlawful restraint of trade within our industry.
- To faithfully fulfill all obligations of membership, including the timely payment of all charges for membership affiliation and services.

To adhere to the Association Bylaws and this Code of Ethics as adopted by the governing Board of the Oregon Moving & Storage Association.

Company Name: _____

Signature: _____

Printed Name: _____ Date: _____

